

Homework: Letter #3

(Worth 10% of Quarter 3 grade. 20 points.)

Due: Monday 1/28 (-1 point for every day this is not turned in. After 10 days, may turn in for 50%)

Prompt: What is something that you're passionate about? This can be something that makes you really happy, or really upset. Write an argumentative letter to Ms. Roth explaining why you feel so strongly about your chosen subject AND why Ms. Roth should care, too!

- Must be at least one full page in length
- Must give at least 3 reasons why you feel so strongly about your chosen subject (one per body paragraph)
- Must give evidence to show that your claims make sense (examples from the world or from your own life, quotes from friends/family/experts, and/or statistics found online)
- Must be in the form of a letter, including an introduction, body paragraphs, and a conclusion

*** Remember: Body paragraphs need a claim, THEN evidence, THEN reasoning, in that order.
